INHABITING UNCERTAINTY.
A FORUM ON QUALITATIVE, QUANTITATIVE AND VISUAL METHODS

Organized by the European Sociological Association's research networks

Qualitative Methods (RN20) & Quantitative Methods (RN21)

in collaboration with

Visual & Digital Cultures Research Center (ViDi - University of Antwerp)

and promoted by

Methodology Section of the Italian Association of Sociology (AIS-MET)

STRUCTURE OF THE PROGRAMME

SEPTEMBER 14
10:00-10:30 Opening
10:30-11:30 Plenary - Round Table on Uncertainty
11:30-12:00 Break
12:00-13:30 Parallel sessions 1, 2, 3
13:30-15:00 Lunch break
15:00-16:30 Parallel sessions 4, 5, 6
16:30 Break
17:00-18:00 Plenary - State of the Art of Qualitative, Quantitative, and Visual Methods
18:30 Concert

SEPTEMBER 15
8:30-10:00 Parallel sessions 7, 8, 9
10:00-10:30 Break
10:30-12:00 Parallel sessions 10, 11, 12
12:00-13:00 Plenary - How to implement the dialogue among different methods
13:00-13:30 Conclusions

DETAILED PROGRAMME

SEPTEMBER 14

10:00-10:30 Opening

Tito Marci, Head of the Faculty of Political Science, Sociology, and Communication
Alberto Marinelli, Director of CoRiS Department
Pierpaolo D'Urso, Director of DiSSE Department
Maria Cristina Marchetti , Director of Political Sciences Department
Stefano Tomelleri, AIS President
Marina Ciampi, Fabrizio Martire, Silvia Cataldi, Local Committee

10:30-11:30 Plenary - Round Table on Uncertainty

Moderator: Marina Ciampi (Sapienza University of Rome, Italy)
Paul Atkinson (University of Cardiff, UK)
Birgit Schäbler (University of Erfurt, Germany)
Paolo Favero (University of Antwerp, Belgium)

11:30-12:00 Break

12:00-13:30 Parallel sessions 1, 2, 3

Parallel Session 1 - Challenges of Sustainable Development (Room Wolf - 1st floor)
Mariella Nocenzi (Sapienza University of Rome, Italy)

Alda Staprāne-Medne (University of Latvia, Latvia), The Role of the Private Sector in Promoting Social Sustainability: Baltic Case

Alena Myshko (Ca' Foscari University of Venice, Italy), The twin transformation in the agriculture and agri-food sector: insights from the institutional approach

Alessandro Vetrano, Matteo Puoti (Sapienza University of Rome, Italy), Whom the apostates are turning to? Former Muslims and aid groups, from the rejection of Islam to interreligious dialogue

Ema Bašić (University of Zadar, Croatia), CCIs as Indicators of Modernization and Sustainable Development in Croatia's Rural Region of Lika

Nidheesh Manee Kandiyil (Jagiellonian University, Poland), Ageing and Inequality in India

Parallel Session 2 - Politics and Social Communities (Room C2 - 2nd floor)
David Wästerfors (University of Lund, Sweden)

Anna Kalinina (Leuphana University Lüneburg, Germany), Contentious politics and the role of connective technologies in Russian anti-war networks

Ciro Carchia (Sapienza University of Rome, Italy) The Hong Kong pro-democracy movement. An actionalist reading

Jeff T. Sheng (University of Michigan, USA), Picturing Hidden Populations: Using Visual Methodologies to See the Unseen

Maria Dogia (Panteion University of Social and Political Sciences, Greece), Social Inclusion Policies for the Roma People: Agencies, Community, and Local Society. The Case of the Sofades Municipal District (Thessaly, Greece)

Maryam Rahmani (University of Erfurt, Germany) Grounded Theory: Accumulation of Historical knowledge(s) and Generating a Contextual Theory in Under-represented Societies

Parallel Session 3 - Migration and Cultures (Room C4 - 2nd floor)
Wolfgang Aschauer (University of Salzburg, Austria)

Alfiya Lyapina (University of Wisconsin-Madison, USA), Balancing between legal statuses: Syrian migration to Russia and the concept of trajectories in survival migration

Ance Kristāla (University of Latvia, Latvia), The Importance of Culture in a Place Development: A Case Study of Latvian Border Areas

Elena Elisa De Carvalho (Sapienza University of Rome, Italy), The influence of non-political organizations in migratory policy setting and implementation

Ingmar Zalewski (University of Kassel, Germany), Reflexive ethnography of relationships after the 'long summer of migration': An approach to situated knowledge

Manuel Holz (University of Chemnitz, Germany), Can occupational prestige explain migrant health inequalities? ISCO-based measures as determining factors of differences in health trajectories between migrants and native Germans using latent growth curve models

13:30-15:00 Lunch break

15:00-16:30 Parallel sessions 4, 5, 6

Session 4 - Educational contexts (Room Wolf - 1st floor)
Orazio Giancola (Sapienza University of Rome, Italy)

Agnese Desideri (University of Florence, Italy), How parents' social categorization practices influence children's social categorization practices

Anamaria Viorela Grama (West University of Timișoara, Romania), The employees of tomorrow: an analysis of the importance of soft skills as a result of digitalization and robotization on the labor market

Andrea Di Leo (Sapienza University of Rome, Italy), The representations of science in students in the last two years of high school

Carlotta Antonelli (Sapienza University of Rome, Italy), Universitabile: research between questions and new challenges

Viviana Capozza, Veronica Salvi (Sapienza University of Rome, Italy), Innovative approaches to organizational analysis for the promotion of well-being at school. The training project in Roman schools as part of the National Operational Program "Inclusion"

Session 5 - Research on Covid-19 (Room C2 - 2nd floor)
Marco Palmieri (Sapienza University of Rome, Italy)

Angelo Galiano (University of Salento, Italy), Young people's struggle in Covid-19 times in Italy

Jowita Radzińska (SWPS University, Warsaw, Poland), Corona-Solidarity: A sociological study of the perception and experience of (in)solidarity in the COVID-19 pandemic

Leonardo Salvatore Alaimo, Marianna Cucci, Federico Neri (Sapienza University of Rome, Italy), The effects of COVID-19 pandemic on housing and living conditions: a quantitative study on the Italian population

Lara Zwittlinger (University of Salzburg, Austria), A Conservative Shift in Times of Crises? Testing the Mechanism in the Case of Austria

Session 6 - Methods and Techniques 1 (Room C4 - 2nd floor)
Maria Carmela Catone (Universidad de Barcelona, Spain)

Axel Franzen, Sebastian Mader (University of Bern, Switzerland), The Measurement of Risk Attitudes: A comparison and evaluation of different measurement instruments

Britta Maskow (Chemnitz University of Technology, Germany), The subjectivisation of labour Scale. How do the results of qualitative scale development and quantitative scale development with structural equation modeling differ?

Edvige Danna (Università Niccolò Cusano, Italy), The Digital Ethical Dimension: a Possible Way to Fight Relativism

Philip Adebahr (Chemnitz University of Technology, Germany), Measuring negative ties, a mixed methods approach to develop a negative tie scale

16:30-17:00 Break

17:00-18:00 Plenary - State of the Art of Qualitative, Quantitative, and Visual Methods
Moderator: Fabrizio Martire (Sapienza University of Rome, Italy)
Kathrin Komp-Leukkunen (LUT University, Finland)
Ulrike Kissmann (University of Kassel, Germany)

Luc Pauwels (University of Antwerp, Belgium)

18:30 Concert

SEPTEMBER 15

8:30-10:00 Parallel sessions 7, 8, 9

Session 7 - Environment and territories (Room Wolf - 1st floor)
Rossana Galdini (Sapienza University of Rome, Italy)

Francesco Bertuccelli (University of Pisa, Italy), Port of Viareggio Ethnography

Maria-Victoria Bas (University of Antwerp, Belgium), Addressing the invisible and mapping obscurities. Exploring the atlas as a visual research method and site of resistance in contemporary art, curatorship, and academia

Melissa Sessa (Sapienza University of Rome/Irpi - CNR Italy), Smart City and Correlated Risks: The Case of Songdo City

Pascalle Sebus (University of Antwerp, Belgium), From sightseeing to sight-sharing: Methodological challenges of studying images in tourism

Silvia De Nardis (Sapienza University of Rome, Italy), Crossing uncertainty in spontaneous places. Methods and tools to understand and regenerate the informal city

Session 8 - Methods and Techniques 2 (Room C4 - 2nd floor)
Federica Floridi (Sapienza University of Rome, Italy)

Luis E. Andrade Silva (University of Salamanca, Spain), Puertoricans online gaming communities on discord: a virtual ethnography from a transnational perspective

Danila Ivanov (National Research University, Higher School of Economics, Russia), An Application for The Forum on Qualitative, Quantitative, and Visual Methods Inhabiting Uncertainty

Henrik Andersen (Chemnitz University of Technology, Germany), Investigating the Use of a Semantic Affect Misattribution Procedure (SAMP) for Measuring Sensitive Attitudes

Melanie Sara Palermo (University of Macerata), Studying generational dynamics in the family business: methodological challenges

Session 9 - Health and Care (Room C2 - 2nd floor)
Barbara Sena (University of Bergamo, Italy)

Barbara Pieta (Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology, Germany), Bella figura- Ethnographic Explorations of Care and Vision in a North-east Italian Town

Idalina Odziemczyk-Stawarz (Jagiellonian University, Poland), Social Representations of Covid-19 Vaccination in the Frame of Health and Illness: Older People Perspective

Katja Richter (University of Kassel, Germany), Care work in the triangle of the patient, therapy animal, and professional

Christopher David Etter (Paris Lodron University of Salzburg, Austria), Sociological mental health research with cross-national surveys: possibilities, pitfalls, and implications for future developments

10:00-10:30 Break

10:30-12:00 Parallel sessions 10, 11, 12

Session 10 - Technology and Communication (Room Wolf - 1st floor)
Veronica Moretti (University of Bologna, Italy)

Anastasia Saponova (HSE University, Moscow, Russia), Integrating Self-Reports and Mobile Tracker Data: Results of a Methodological Experiment

Tove Gustavvson (Lund University, Sweden), Darknet - lawless, not normless

Raffaella Rubino (Università degli Studi di Bari Aldo Moro, Italy), Computational Social Science. Analysis from the metadata to Google Flu Trends

Sara Pane (Sapienza University of Rome), European policies of digital transition Communicating Europe between information, communication and participation deficits: prospects for EU public institutional communication in the post-pandemic scenario. Towards a digital European post-public sphere?

Mirco Liefke (Freie Universität Berlin, Germany), A risky venture. An ethnographic inquiry into news-making

Session 11 - Methods and Techniques 3 (Room C4 - 2nd floor)
Modesto Escobar (University of Salamanca, Spain)

Anna Gerchen (German Centre for Higher Education Research and Science Studies, Germany), Getting the record straight. Uncovering practices of the production of records and its relevance for qualitative research

Cristina Calvo López (Universidad de Salamanca, Spain), Text content analysis for the study of open-ended responses on self-identity: A comparison between different coding methods

Giulia Melis, Sara Nanetti (University of Cagliari, University of Milan, Italy), Uncertainty and intersubjectivity when producing qualitative data. Challenges and considerations from the ILQA-19 longitudinal qualitative research

Matteo Finco (Sapienza University of Rome, Italy), Being young after pandemic: a theoretical-empirical and mixed methods analysis on uncertainty, youth wellbeing, and discomfort

Session 12 - Vulnerability and social action (Room C2 - 2nd floor)
Serena Quarta (Sapienza University of Rome)

Giulia Marchetti (University of Western Australia, Australia), Becoming adults elsewhere. The recent migration of young Italians to Australia.

Jan-Christian Wilkening (University of Cologne, Germany), Ethnography and Intellectual Disability: On the Specifics of Interviewing People with Intellectual Disabilities

Johanna Wahl (University of Kaiserslautern-Landau, Germany), Visual communication as a constitutive moment for social movements

Francesco Calicchia (Università di Roma "Foro Italico", Italy), Health inequalities and urban realities: the Rione Sanità in the new phase of regional territorial health restructuring, from below and above

12:00-13:00 Plenary - How to implement the dialogue among different methods
Moderator: Silvia Cataldi (Sapienza University of Rome, Italy)
Giampietro Gobo (University of Milan, Italy)
Enrica Amaturo (University of Naples)
Jochen Mayerl (Chemnitz University of Technology, Germany)
Andrea Salvini (President AIS MET, University of Pisa, Italy)

13:00-13:30 Conclusions